6. Restriction on communication and trading by insider

6.1 Restriction on communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information

6.1.1 No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

6.1.2 No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

(“legitimate purpose” shall include sharing of unpublished price sensitive information in the ordinary course of business by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of these regulations.)

6.1.3 Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a “legitimate purpose” shall be considered an “insider” for purposes of these regulations and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such unpublished price sensitive information in compliance with these regulations.

6.1.4 Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, an unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:-

- entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Listed Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company;
- not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Listed Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

6.1.5 No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information:

Explanation -When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following: -

- i. the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.

[Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained under sub-regulation (3) of regulation 3 of the regulations.

Provided further that such off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the company within two working days. Every company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

- ii. the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained by either person under sub-regulation (3) of regulation 3 of these regulations.

- iii. the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.

- iv. the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.

- v. in the case of non-individual insiders: -

(a) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and

(b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

- vi. the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with regulation 5.

In the case of connected persons the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, shall be on such connected persons and in other cases, the onus would be on the Board.

- 6.1.6 “Need To Know” basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information. All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.
- 6.1.7 Limited access to confidential information - Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc. without prejudice to the above, the Directors, Officers and employees shall follow such guidelines for maintenance of electronic record and systems as may be prescribed by Compliance officer from time to time after consultation with the person in charge of the Information Technology.
- 6.1.8 The Company shall maintained a structured digital database containing the names of such persons or entities as the case may be with whom information is shared under this regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. The said databases shall have adequate internal controls and checks to ensure non-tampering of the database.
- 6.1.9 To prevent the misuse of confidential information the organisation will adopt a “Chinese Wall” policy which separates those areas of the Organisation which routinely have access to confidential information’s, considered “insider areas” from those areas which deals with sale/marketing/ investment advice or other departments providing support services, considered “Public areas”.

The employees in the insider area shall not communicate any price sensitive information to anyone in the public area.

The employees in the Insider area will be physically segregated from the employees in public area.

Demarcation of the various departments as inside area will be done, as and when required.

6.1.10 Restricted / Grey List - In order to monitor Chinese wall procedure and trading in securities based on the inside information's , the organization shall restrict trading in certain securities and designate such list as restricted / grey list.

6.1.11 Trading Window - All Directors / officers and designated employees of the Company shall be subject to the trading restrictions as enumerated below.

- i. The Company shall specify a trading period, to be called "Trading Window", for dealing in the securities of the Company by the designated employees of the Company.
- ii. Unless otherwise specified (Annexure - 1) by the Compliance Officer, the trading window shall be, inter alia, closed 7 days prior to :-
 - declaration of Financial results (quarterly, half-yearly and annual);
 - declaration of dividends (interim and final);
 - issue of securities by way of public/rights/bonus/ or change in capital structure.
 - any major expansion plans or execution of new projects;
 - amalgamation, mergers, takeovers and buy-back;
 - disposal of whole or substantially whole of the undertaking and
 - any changes in policies, plans or operations of the company.
- iii. The trading window shall remain closed until the Price Sensitive Information becomes generally available information.
- iv. The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than twenty four hours after the information becomes generally available.
- v. All Directors, Officers and Designated Employees shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only when the trading window is open and no Director, Officer or Employee of the Company shall deal in the securities of the company during such period when the trading window is closed or during any other period as may be specified by the Compliance Officer from time to time.

- vi. The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.
- vii. In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the trading window is closed. However, sale of securities allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when trading window is closed. However, exercise of a “cashless” stock option shall not be allowed when the trading window is closed since this type of exercise requires a sale of the Company’s Securities.

6.2 Trading Plans

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

Such Trading Plan shall:-

- i. Not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;

 - iv. Not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
 - v. Set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at , or dates, on which such trades shall be effected; and
 - vi. Not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
- 6.3 The Compliance officer shall review the trading plan to access whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

Provided that pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

Provided further that trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

- 6.4 The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the Insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation.

The Compliance Officer shall confirm that the commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

Further, the Compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed.

7 Pre-clearance of trades

- 7.1 No designated person shall apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed.

7.2 Procedure for obtaining Pre-Dealing

For the purpose of obtaining a pre-dealing approval, the concerned director/ officer/ designated employee should make an application in the prescribed form

(Annexure - 2) to the Compliance Officer. Such application should be complete and correct in all respects and should be accompanied by such undertakings, declarations, indemnity bonds and other documents / papers as may be prescribed by the Compliance officer from time to time (Annexure - 3).

7.3 Approval

- i) The compliance officer shall consider the application made as above and shall approve it unless he is of the opinion that grant of such approval would result in a breach of the provisions of this regulation or Companies Act, 2013 or any other regulatory regulation.
- ii) Every approval letter shall be in such format (Annexure -4) as may be prescribed by the Company from time to time. Every approval shall be dated and shall be valid for a period of 7 trading days from the date of its issue.

Pre-cleared trades have to be executed by the designated person, within seven trading days, failing which fresh pre-clearance would be needed for the trades to be executed.

- iii) All the directors / officers / designated employees and their dependents shall within 4 trading days of the execution of the deal, the details of such deal with the Compliance officer in the prescribed format. Whether the transaction is undertaken or not, intimation should be provided. (Annexure - 5)
- iv) In the absence of the Compliance officer due to leave, etc, the Officer designated by him / her from time-to-time shall discharge the function referred above.
- v) Prior to approving any trades, the compliance officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the Applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He shall also regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
- vi) The compliance officer shall confidentially maintain a list of such securities as a “restricted list” which shall be used as the basis for approving or rejecting applications for Pre- Clearance of trades.
- vii) The Compliance Officer may waive off the holding period in case of sale of securities in personal emergency after recording reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.

8. Restriction on Contra Trade

Every person who has exercised the option of trading under this regulation shall not contra trade, before Six months has elapsed

The Compliance officer may be empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing. Provided that such relaxation does not violate these regulations, if a contra trade is executed, inadvertently, or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profit from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund (IEPF).

- i. The compliance officer will report to the board of directors and in particular, will provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee or to the Chairman of the board of directors at such frequency as may be stipulated by the board of directors, but not less than once in a year.
- ii. All information will be handled within the organisation on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information will be communicated to any person except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

- iii. Designated Persons and immediate relatives of designated persons in the organisation will be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.
- iv. Designated persons may execute trades subject to compliance with these regulations. Towards this end, a notional trading window shall be used as an instrument of monitoring trading by the designated persons. The trading window shall be closed when the compliance officer determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates. Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed.

Trading restriction period can be made applicable from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results.

The gap between clearance of accounts by audit committee and board meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.

- v. The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the compliance officer taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
- vi. When the trading window is open, trading by designated persons shall be subject to pre-clearance by the compliance officer, if the value of the proposed trades is above such thresholds as the board of directors may stipulate.
- vii. Prior to approving any trades, the compliance officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate
- viii. A timeframe, which in any event shall not be more than seven trading days, within which trades that have been pre-cleared have to be executed by the designated person, failing which fresh pre-clearance would be needed for the trades to be executed

- ix. A period, which in any event shall not be less than six months, within which a designated person who is permitted to trade shall not execute a contra trade. The compliance officer may be empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these regulations. Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act.

Provided that this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.

- X. Designated persons shall be required to disclose names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:
- a. immediate relatives
 - b. persons with whom such designated person(s) shares a material financial relationship
 - c. Phone, mobile and cell numbers which are used by them

In addition, the names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one time basis.
